Considers that Captain Moore should have been dismissed from the Office of Lay Trustee, had he not resigned that office, and that it remains to require him to make the most ample apology to Mr. Whitehead and the Bishop for his conduct, and in the event of his refusal, he should be brought to a Court Martial for unofficer-like and ~~un~~gentlemanlike Conduct in insulting gentlemen who are prevented by their profession from

Presumes that all must concur in condemning Brigadier Cookes act, in having caused his furniture to be removed on the sabbath, as an open profanation of that day, and is of opinion that the Reverend Mr. Taylor would have failed in a correct discharge of his duty had he omitted to remonstrate with Brigadier Cooke, or any other member of his congregation, who thus openly abetted or sanctioned such a desecration of that day. With reference to certain of his notes quoted in the Most Noble the President's Minute of the the 27th. September last, observes that the Honorable Court will not fail to perceive that they were manifestly not written for the purpose of being recorded, as only what he places on record himself is intended for their Consideration - States why the subject of the reference in the cases of Captain Moore and the Reverend H. Taylor may be disposed of together - Observes that by a reference to the duties of Lay Trustees as prescribed by the Rules, there is nothing to justify the part taken by Captain Moore whose object was clearly to insult the Ministry in the persons of the Bishop and the Reverend Mr. Whitehead - Presumes it is not intended to Countenance the disrespectful language used by Captain Moore towards the Bishop in the matter of Certain Books forming a portion of his Lordship's Library, which, he has reason to know,

Contained none but such as are found in the Library of Every Gentleman possessing a Collection of any extent or Value - Is of opinion that Captain Moore should be required through the Commander in Chief to make an ample apology to the Bishop and Mr Whitehead -

Adverting to the subject of the Reverend H. Taylor's remonstrance with Brigadier Cooke, considers the Command of temper under very offensive provocation evinced by the latter to be deserving of great praise - Refers to a Mass of papers from which the Honorable Court will see how much of the time of Government has been occupied by Mr Taylor and from a correct estimate of the Value of his services suggests that the Bishop should be requested to recommend to the Reverend H Taylor a more Judicious and less Offensive exercise of his Office

Considers Captain Moore's Offence to be further aggravated by unnecessarily intruding upon the records of Government certain expressions highly disrespectful to the Lord Bishop and totally irrelevant to Mr. Whitehead's Complaint, instead of availing himself of the opportunity afforded of tendering an apology for what had passed and objects to the notice proposed to be taken of this matter by Government

Observes that nothing of the particular referred to by Mr Chanier as regards the kind of books in the Bishop's Library is before Government. adds that if the mode in which the business and proceedings of Government are now carried on, is not in accordance with Law, it should be made so although he is not aware that a Change is necessary, the same System being now in force, as obtained on his arrival. Sees no connexion between the instances cited in Para 8 of the Senior Member's Minute. In the one, the expressions used regarding the Lord Bishop being contained in a private communication from Captain Moore to Mr Blenkinsop; in the other, a public statement having been made by the Metropolitan to the Government of India adds that he himself suggested that an explanation might be called for from the former as no judgment could be ~~[illegible]~~ found until its receipt. — | uary to 23rd December 18th November No. 11 of 1845 1845 No. 11 Para 2 @ 5 1252
